Description

The official Redmine from Track migrate plugin should import users (as wrote down here: RedmineMigrate), but it does not.

In Redmine I see on all ticket that Redmine Admin is the reporter. And reassign 1000 open ticket is a bit painfull. :(

Ruby version 1.9.3-p448 (2013-06-27) [i386-mingw32]
Rails version 3.2.13
Environment production
Database adapter Mysql2
Rails Version: Rails 3.2.13
Database: MySQL 5.6.13

This is a duplicate of #14590 which I reported.

I submitted a whole bunch of fixes recently to fix migrate_from_trac.rake .

Until the Redmine developers incorporate the patches, you should get the version from:

https://github.com/rodrigc/redmine/blob/master/lib/tasks/migrate_from_trac.rake and replace that file in your tree, and re-run the import.

Jack, can you confirm if this is indeed a duplicate by applying the patch of Craig posted in #14590 and trying the import again?

Yes, I confirm.
