History

#1 - 2010-11-11 19:16 - Jean-Philippe Lang

It looks like you're not using the migration script (lib/tasks/migrate_from_trac.rake) provided with 1.0.3. Anything else to mention?

#2 - 2010-11-12 11:23 - Félix Delval

I am using the migration script from the 1.0.3 version.

The problem seems to be that function Time.fake() has problem to handle when the given input is nil.

class ::Time
  class << self
    alias :real_now :now
    def now
      real_now - @fake_diff.to_i
    end
    def fake(time)
      @fake_diff = real_now - time
      res = yield
      @fake_diff = 0
      res
    end
  end
end
```

To solve that issue I modified this function in such way :

```
class ::Time
  class << self
    alias :real_now :now
    def now
      real_now - @fake_diff.to_i
    end
    def fake(time)
      time = 0 if time.nil?
      @fake_diff = real_now - time
      res = yield
      @fake_diff = 0
      res
    end
  end
```

The migration works perfectly nows. I have a few other trac to migrate, I'll try this modification and if it work I'll add a patch file.

This is a duplicate of #5764.

#4 - 2010-11-13 14:47 - Jean-Philippe Lang

- Status changed from New to Closed

- Resolution set to Duplicate

#5 - 2011-06-27 11:24 - C. X.

- Status changed from Closed to Reopened

Why should this be a duplicate of the other issue?

The error is not even the same and the redmine versions are different!

I got the same error with trac 0.13.

The advice of Félix Delval helped me.

#6 - 2012-02-21 22:08 - Leo Shklovskii

Agreed, it's not a duplicate, it's a totally different issue. The fix that Felix did worked for me, it would be great to get it checked into trunk.

#7 - 2012-04-16 10:23 - J. R.

Still exists in redmine 1.4.0. Felix fix is working indeed.
