Description
I think I would like to see the option to not have empty issue fields included in email notifications. There are some fields, custom or otherwise, that do not regularly have a value. Having them not present in the notification email would save a bit of space and make the reading a bit easier.

I may overlook information if there are too many empty fields.

Suppressing empty fields is also important if we add new fields such as start date and due date to notification emails (See the patch on #13307).

Setting the target version to 4.1.0.

I think we should implement this feature before implementing #13307 that adds start date and due date to the list in notifications.
