

Redmine - Feature #1188

Commit-message author-mapping with Redmine user account

Description When the commit author matches an existing user login, could Redmine link the status change to the user account instead of crediting it to Anonymous? BTW, it would be nice if those user names in issue History were actual hyperlinks to user accounts.
Related issues: Is duplicate of Redmine - Feature #1383: Map repository authors to Redmine users Closed 2008-06-05
