Description

r10547 changes the ordering of journals in IssuesController#show from created_on ASC do id ASC, is there a specific reason for this? Ordering by ID is probably right in most cases, we have a Jira import where this is not the case.

Sort journals by created_on then id (#14881).

This was changed because journals may have the same created_on value. We could use created_on ASC, id ASC instead to fix your issue but importing journals in chronological order would have been a better option :/

Ah, because of the split public changes/private notes journals? I understand.

created_on ASC, id ASC would work, thanks!

#61 note order is strange.
#61#note-5 is oldest.

#61#note-5 -> #61#note-4 -> #61#note-3 -> #61#note-2 -> #61#note-1 ->
#61#note-6 -> #61#note-7 ...
