Description We've installed new version of Red Mine recently. Before that we had possibility to move issues between different projects while editing it. Now we can't move them -- there is no Project combo-box (see 2.png) . Check box "Move issue" diapered from Roles and permission menu(see 1.png). Environment: Redmine version3.0.2.stable Ruby version2.0.0-p645 (2015-04-13) [i386-mingw32] Rails version4.2.1 Environmentproduction Database adapterMysql2 SCM: Subversion1.8.11 Git1.9.5 Filesystem Redmine plugins: clipboard_image_paste1.10

History

#1 - 2015-05-21 13:42 - Wim DePreter

Moving issues is now defined in Workflow - Field permissions (#3521).
If field project is read-only (for certain role and certain status), issues can not be moved.

#2 - 2015-05-21 16:14 - Kirill B

- Status changed from New to Resolved

Thanks
pls fix it online documentation
