Description

First I like to know if this is the right place to ask my question:
We are user of Redmine on hostedredmine.com/ and we have problems with the structure of the projects.

We have defined four subprojects under one general project. This worked well and we could see all issues of all subproject on the general project page. Since last week the structure is changed and all projects are now subprojects of another, for me not familiar, project "Empresa de Consultoria"?

Does anyone know how to solve this?

Thanks in advance.
