Description

Although assignee field and author field list visible members of all projects, user type custom field only lists "Me". It is inconsistent and inconvenient.

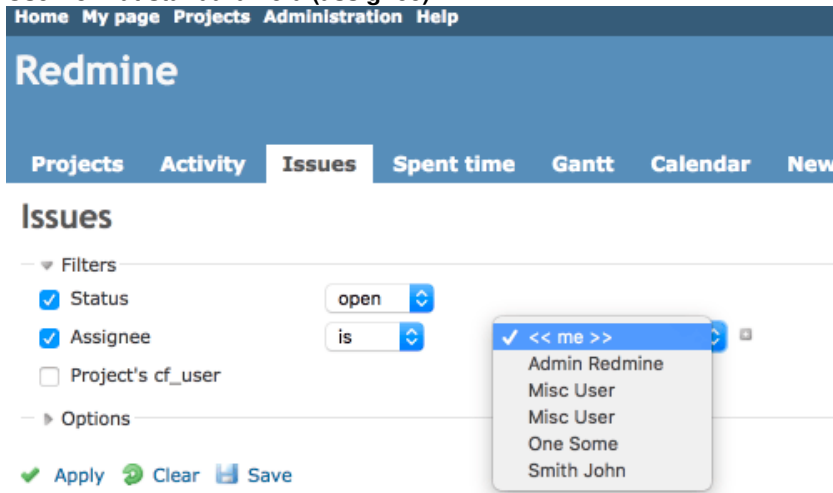

User format custom field should list members of projects in addition to "Me".

User format custom field:

The screenshot shows the Redmine interface with the 'Issues' tab selected. Under the 'Filters' section, the 'Project's cf_user' filter is active, showing a dropdown menu with the selected option '<< me >>'. Other filters include 'Status' set to 'open' and 'Assignee' which is unchecked. At the bottom, there are buttons for 'Apply', 'Clear', and 'Save'.

User format standard field (assignee):

The screenshot shows the Redmine interface with the 'Issues' tab selected. Under the 'Filters' section, the 'Assignee' filter is active, showing a dropdown menu with the selected option '<< me >>'. Other filters include 'Status' set to 'open' and 'Project's cf_user' which is unchecked. The dropdown menu for 'Assignee' lists several users: 'Admin Redmine', 'Misc User', 'One Some', and 'Smith John'. At the bottom, there are buttons for 'Apply', 'Clear', and 'Save'.
