Description
I think it would be better to show "Latest news" box above "Members" box. Currently, "Latest news" box is displayed under the Members page. I think we can resolve the following problems by swapping positions. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- "Members" box may become longer if the project has dozens of members. As a result, members cannot see "Latest news" box without scrolling- The frequency of updates and importance of information is higher in "Latest news" box than in "Members box". Therefore, I suggest switching positions of those boxes. Before: news-box-position-before.png After: news-box-position-after.png

I'm in favor for this patch as it shows me more relevant information right on top of the page.
