Category:	SCM		Estimated time:	0.00 hour
Target version:	1.2.0
Resolution:	Fixed		Affected version:	0.8.6

Description

In repository view under a CVS project, listing doesn't show Size, Author, Revision, or Comment like same screen shows under SVN project. Information is provided in cvs -q -n rlog {MODULE_NAME} command.

```
CVS 1.12.12 (client/server)
Redmine 0.8.6
Apache 2.2.13
ImageMagick 6.5.2-9
MySQL 5.1.30
Subversion 1.6.2
Ruby 1.8.7-p160
Rails 2.3.2
RubyGems 1.3.4
```

Same results whether working from a branch or HEAD revision, posting even just last changes to file would improve visibility to changes. But ideally Revision would note :{VERSION} (Ps. Great resource, Wish I had someone who could fix this for you, but only Html/Php folks here.)

History

#1 - 2009-11-29 22:42 - Justin Hitt

When defining CVS repository, using local path (my CVS repo is on Redmine server) and path of module rather than module name, then more of desired information is provided in Repository view. Information returned is flat (meaning all files in repository are shown, including deleted files) and doesn't consider branches.

- Status changed from New to Resolved

- % Done changed from 0 to 100

Turns out, Repository tab doesn't know about CVS Branches and using them causes odd source browsing in Redmine. Just not using branches solves issue.
