Description in the repository view, you need to download a file to view the raw file. Would be nice to have this as option so you can view non binary files directly with browser.

Is there something wrong with the "view" link up in the repository single file view, like here?

#2 - 2010-09-13 14:21 - Ammler _

try to copy & paste a snippet from there

#3 - 2010-09-13 14:22 - Ammler _

it should be basically the Download but without forcing Download

I implemented this feature in #6256.
Detecting text or binary is very difficult.
UTF-16 has '\0'.
So, I use file extension.
