Description
The default "Help" link in Redmine leads to a 404 error (on http://www.redmine.org/guide ). Since this is also the default help link on all new installations, I think this should be fixed quickly.

Broken by an upgrade this week-end and changed wiki routes. It's now fixed.
Thanks for pointing this out.
