Description
This issue is about Redmine.org the website. And not (directly) about Redmine the software. I acknowledge this issue queue is not for support issues for Redmine.org website, but I can not find a more appropriate place to file this issue. Steps to reproduce: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Log in to Redmine.org as a regular user (no additional privileges)2. Go to http://www.redmine.org/my/account3. (optional) Change anything4. Click save<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Expected behaviour: A message stating changes were saved- Actual behaviour: Redmine.org returns an error message "_Login has already been taken_" <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Reload the page<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Expected behaviour: Changes have been saved- Actual behaviour: Changes were not saved I could not find any issues in the issue queue for Redmine the software that appear to relate to this.
