Description When getting search results, all items are checked. As more plugins are added, it extends the list of search items, where it would be good to have a clear all to just select the one or two that you want to search vs unchecking all.

Probably we can fulfill this request by adding a green check icon ( toggle_check.png ) to check/uncheck checkboxes, that can be seen in many pages such as Workflow and Permission report.

#2 - 2019-02-05 01:04 - Mizuki ISHIKAWA

By changing like this, a green check icon will be added.

On other screens, it is label + green check icon, but I could not think of an appropriate label on this screen.

- Target version set to Candidate for next minor release

it is a small change and very useful, I propose to add it in a next minor release.

- Target version changed from Candidate for next minor release to 4.0.2

I agree. Setting the target version to 4.0.2.

#5 - 2019-02-06 14:51 - Go MAEDA

I changed the target version to 4.0.1, but this change may break themes for 4.0 because it changes the structure of HTML (wraps p#search-types with fieldset.box).

I think 4.1.0 is better.

- Subject changed from Add clear all to search to Add a check/uncheck all button to search Committed. Thanks.

This issue shows target version 4.0.2 and changelog shows it, too. But the related commit currently only exists in trunk. I think, this issue should be changed to target version 4.1.0 (as mentioned in #10264#note-5).

Indeed, the target version was never changed to 4.1.0. I'm not sure what we should do in this case, I see two options:

- we merge r17852 in 4.0-stable branch and deliver this feature in 4.0.3
- we change the target version to 4.1.0 and that's it.

#9 - 2019-03-15 14:55 - Marius BĂLTEANU

My recommendation is to deliver this in 4.0.3 (is not such a big change).

#10 - 2019-03-17 08:10 - Go MAEDA

Sorry for my mistake.

I have merged r17852 to 4.0-stable branch and it will be available in 4.0.3.
