|col1|col2|col3|

val1	val2	val3
------	------	------

muaaaahahaha

This is quoting, clever dog.

Indenting is without vertical quote line and can be configured how far indented.

AFAIK, textile does not support indentation for tables but you can use inline style (Redmine >=1.4):

table{margin-left:2em}.
|val1|val2|val3|
```

```
table{margin-left:4em}.
|val1|val2|val3|
```

That gives:

val1	val2	val3
------	------	------

------	------	------
