- Resolution set to Invalid

I'm closing it because administrators can apply any status transition given to any role, by design. See #2323.

But what about projects where that workflow is invalid? No one in that project has that workflow, so no one can transition a ticket set to "Pending QA Deployment", which is kind of a workaround for #1853.

However, I still cannot go from "New" to "Deployed to QA" or "Passed QA" as those are globally invalid transitions, so neither are all options available.
