Category:	Issues permissions	Estimated time:	0.00 hour
Target version:
Resolution:	Invalid
Description
is it possible to have private or confidential issues in a project. I want to mean that an issue added by a user only could be seen by him and the assignee user?

History

#1 - 2012-10-24 14:12 - Etienne Massip

- Status changed from New to Closed
- Assignee deleted (Jean-Philippe Lang)
- Resolution set to Invalid

Private issues have been implemented with #7414 for 1.2.0, issue visibility is set at role level.
