Description

When attaching a file to a forum message, we found that the first file attached did not show up. Only files after the first appeared. This is occurring is version 0.7.

I can not reproduce this problem with 0.7.0.
Could you give more details (the exact steps to follow in order to reproduce) ? And does it occur everytime ?

This can be marked down as user error. The issue was that Redmine was smarter than I expected. :) In my testing of the forum capabilities, I had been testing with a zero length file, which was not appearing. Once I put some content into the file though, it uploaded fine. My apologizes for not doing more thorough testing upfront.
