| DescriptionPlease, add a confirmation like "Are you sure to abandon changes?" when user leaves a wiki page in edit mode. I've recently lost a hour of hard work when occasionally pressed Del and the browser brought me to the previous page. Google Docs has this feature. |           |                        |                   |
