Hi there,

this is a first approve to create a cleaner translation/more consistent ui.

This refers to #7768.

My page have different translation approaches for the widgets. My suggestion for this would be...

EN:

- label_my_page: Dashboard
- label_my_page_block: Widget list
- label_reported_issues: Issues reported by me
- label_assigned_to_me_issues: Issues assigned to me
- label_watched_issues: Issues watched by me

DE:

- label_my_page: Dashboard
- label_my_page_block: Widget Liste
- label_reported_issues: Von mir erstellte Tickets
- label_assigned_to_me_issues: Mir zugewiesene Tickets
- label_watched_issues: Von mir beobachtete Tickets

What do you think about this proposal?

Best regards,
Daniel

DE:

- label_my_page: Dashboard <-- No. It's not german.
- label_my_page_block: Widget Liste <-- No. It's not german.
- label_reported_issues: Von mir erstellte Tickets <-- Yes/No. I propose "Erstellte Tickets".
- label_assigned_to_me_issues: Mir zugewiesene Tickets <-- No. "Mir zugewiesen" is shorter and easy to understand.
- label_watched_issues: Von mir beobachtete Tickets <-- No. "Beobachtete Tickets" is shorter and easy to understand.

I think we don't need "Mir" or "Von mir" because on my page everything is mine.

Well you're right, it's not a german word, but it's colloquially. ;-)
But "Meine Seite" would be still ok.

Wrong. It's colloquially too! ;-)

Well in this point, I would agree with you. The "von mir" isn't useful. :-)

This is the second approach:

label_my_page: "Meine Seite"
label_my_page_block: "Widget Liste"
label_reported_issues: "Erstellte Tickets"
label_assigned_to_me_issues: "Zugewiesene Tickets" or "Mir zugewiesen" (but I would prefer "Zugewiesene Tickets" - more consistent with other terms) label_watched_issues: "beobachtete Tickets"
```
My suggestion:
- `label_reported_issues`: "Erstellte Tickets" - OK
- `label_my_page_block`: "Verfügbare Widgets" - We don't have to say that it is a list. The word "verfügbare" also indicates that this list is changing.
- `label_assigned_to_me_issues`: "Mir zugewiesene Tickets" - I would really keep this expression, because in the opposite to all other widgets it means "others sth. to me" instead of "I sth. to others". Just "Zugewiesene Tickets" could mean those issue I assigned to others.

Finally, this would be okay for everyone?

- `label_my_page`: "Meine Seite"
- `label_my_page_block`: "Verfügbare Widgets"
- `label_reported_issues`: "Erstellte Tickets"
- `label_assigned_to_me_issues`: "Mir zugewiesene Tickets"
- `label_watched_issues`: "Beobachtete Tickets"
