And of course it should be applied for all other list of the same type.

Depends, need to see the patch =)

If you could write some test that would be great.

In Redmine 3.2, "Possible values" of key/value list custom fields support drag and drop. It would be great if other screens including "Issue statuses" also support drag and drop.

I made a patch. It includes "drag and drop" user interface for the following resources that can change the position.

- issue_statuses
- custom_fields
- enumerations

- roles
- trackers

this patch is compatibled with latest trunk 15195. It also includes the test code.

- Target version set to Candidate for next major release

The patch works fine and really improves UI.

It would be great if I could see this modern UI in Redmine 3.3.0.

I preferred not to add extra actions for sorting, and get rid of acts_as_list.

From a UI point of view, the results is the same, and extended to the forum order configuration.

This could be VERY welcome for milestones as well.. Being able to reorder them by doing drag'n'drop - instead of having to change due-date :)
