The description is unclear to me. Could you describe how you reproduced this?

#5 - 2013-07-28 17:39 - Etienne Massip

Right, I eventually understood the description after I had a look to the attached screenshot: open issues count is simply not displayed. I confirmed by comparing the same summary page on a MSSQL instance and a mysql instance AFAIR.

Is it related to the mysql->mssql migration or does it always look like this with mssql?

#8 - 2013-07-28 18:04 - Etienne Massip

I think it's always like this with MSSQL, although the MSSQL instance I used to confirm was migrated from PostgreSQL.

#9 - 2013-07-28 18:38 - Jean-Philippe Lang

- Subject changed from Display as Blank...Total count of Open/Close issue in Summary to Open/closed issue counts on issues summary are not displayed with SQLServer

- Status changed from Confirmed to Resolved

- Assignee changed from Jean-Philippe Lang to Etienne Massip

- Resolution set to Fixed

Fixed in r12060, thanks for the feedback.
