Description
Maybe this has already been discussed, I could not find any related ticket however. Currently the subject line only shows the project the ticket is inside. [Subproject Ipsum - Bug #123] (New) This is the subject It would be very useful for us to have the parent project also mentioned: [Parent project Lorem > Subproject Ipsum - Bug #123] (New) This is the subject As we have hundrets of quite similar subprojects running in parallel, the recipient should instantly see what parent project the issue belongs to. I am aware that the subject line becomes even longer by this... Thanks everybody
