Eric, how does this patch relate to the patch provided by jplang in issue #971?

Hi,

We're using Redmine at our company, and would really like this patch (or something like it) to be included into Redmine, so we won't have to patch Redmine manually. :-)

Yours sincerely,
Adam Tulinius

+2 i like this one. Especially that one can switch it on/off!

#7 - 2009-07-15 13:54 - Richard Cooke

Great patch, thank you!

How do I change it to show only two decimal places? At the moment some values are 8.2300000190735 in my issues list.

How difficult would it be to color spent time red, if spent time is greater than actual time?

#8 - 2009-07-19 11:11 - Chris Grieger

- File add_time_spent_column_to_issues-svn_r2823.patch added

- File add_time_spent_column_to_issues_and_colored-svn_r2823.patch added

Updated the patch with the ability to sort by the "Time spent" column and added rounding to 2 decimal places.

patch -p0 < patches/add_time_spent_column_to_issues-svn_r2823.patch patching file app/helpers/issues_helper.rb patching file app/models/issue.rb patching file app/models/query.rb patching file app/controllers/issues_controller.rb patching file config/locales/en.yml

The 2nd patch also colors the spent hours red if > estimated hours.

Rendering C:/redmine-0.8-stable/public/500.html (500 Internal Server Error)

#10 - 2009-07-22 08:07 - Kirill Ponomarev

I changed method in issue.rb and all works fine:

def spent_hours_colored(value)
  if value.nil? || estimated_hours.nil? || value <= estimated_hours
    return value
  else
    return "<FONT COLOR=RED'>"+value.to_s+"</FONT>" end

Do I understand correctly that the patches mentioned in this issue are no longer functional?

If not I'll have a go at trying them out first.

Hi All,

I updated the last patch colored time spent.

But i also update more files for security issues (there is a permission on viewing spent time, so we need to handle it in html view, csv and pdf)

I did not know how to make a regular patch with git, so i hope to find someone to apply this and post a svn patch for you.

It should work for the last version of redmine

I try this patch, but maybe there is a bug in PDF export, number are not "all" formated correctly.

See the attachment:

0.2000000029802 in PDF file,

0.20 in Issue tab.

Any help would be great

Thank you Peter

I make this changes:

app/models/query.rb

+ "QueryColumn.new(:spent_hours)," to @@available_columns

config/locales/en.yml

+ "field_spent_hours: Spent time"

If there is summary logged hours consist of 0.25 or 0.5 or 0.75 or 1.0, sum is displayed correctly rounded.

But if one of log times is 0.2 or 0.15 (does not consist of quarters) then sum look like 23.40000000596 or 0.30000001192093

Small example:

0.25 + 0.25 = 0.5

but 0.15 + 0.15 = 0.30000001192093

Why? Redmine 1.02 from SVN @4295

Maybe I fix this:

app/models/issue.rb

- @spent_hours ||= self_and_descendants.sum("#{TimeEntry.table_name}.hours", :include => :time_entries).to_f || 0.0
+ @spent_hours ||= self_and_descendants.sum("#{TimeEntry.table_name}.hours", :include => :time_entries).to_f.round(2) || 0.0

Just in case people hadn't seen this ... <http://stackoverflow.com/questions/321403/redmine-add-spent-time-field-to-issues-display>

It would be VERY good to have this in trunk! As PM i VERY want to see spent time versus estimated time. I should know - do we fit in our original estimation or not.

Congratulation for your work I put the `add_time_spent_column_to_issues_withpermissions.patch` en my redmine and I think exists two bugs when I try to order the column redmine returns a blank page and if the column is visible and I try to export to pdf redmine fails

#30 - 2011-02-28 14:44 - Luis Serrano Aranda

This patch finally works the exportation I got it with the patch #3614, how I could add this field (`spent_hour`) to the queries ?

Thanks

#31 - 2011-02-28 15:10 - Luis Serrano Aranda

The permission dont work

#32 - 2011-02-28 16:25 - Luis Serrano Aranda

The problem are two plugins redmine show description and redmine default columns, all perfect thanks

The patch applies for me. It would be great to add this to the issue view of subtasks. I'm using this primarily to get a roll up of estimates vs. actuals and having this on each set of subtasks would really help me get a snapshot the state of the project

#35 - 2011-08-02 08:55 - Maxim Strukov

How to paint Time Spent field at Issue card view?

It would be very nice to have this in the trunk. My interest is the same as many of the above: being able to compare estimated time vs spent time, by having a good overview.

As mentioned the first time by Tony Marschall in #8559 note-4, there exists a plugin which provides this feature (along with some others) implemented as it should (correctly checking permissions): Redmine spent time column. It's written by Jan Schulz-Hofen of plan.io.

I've started working on some improvements to make it better suitable for this issue in my fork of it:
