Description

There is a plugin that hides estimated hours, but I have no skills to edit it to hide assigned to field ( https://github.com/return1/redmine_hide_estimated_hours)

Could somebody edit this plugin to hide the assigned to field from same places than that plugin?

History

Since 2.1.0, standard fields can be disabled per tracker (cfr #1091).
No need to install a plugin for this.

If you want the hide a field, based on a role, this issue is duplicate of #12005

I'm aware of the #12005, but I can't get the patches in it to work and I found this plugin. I want to hide it based on a role, that's why this plugin request.

Maybe this feature could be extention of #5037, f.e. "Role-based issue standard field visibility"
