Description

Currently, issue deleted are ... deleted :-)
To avoid to lost something, it would be great to have a final notification (same notifications rules + Redmine administrators). This notification should have the full history instead of final deletion step. I don't know how to handle attachments (attached or not - not so important).

If you prefer to have a 'soft delete' like #1380 or #6666, this feature is useless and you can cancel it. But please, try to handle this deletion differently soon.

I think, it is very important feature.
We have 10 "managers" in project + 3 administrators. And I don`t know, who and when deleted the issue. All info about issue dissapeared, even in "activity page"!
