+1

It will be good to add drag&drop for custom fields order's page.

+1

Specially when you have many custom fields and you create a new field that you want to place in the middle of the list.

+1 for drag and drop. Being able to group by a "type" or "category" would be useful too.

I agree and I think that the OP will too, so I'll close it as such. Additional requests can, when necessary, be handled through separate issues. Thanks for your note.
