Description Hey guys. Has the default issue status been removed in the 3.1 release? The backlog plugin (http://www.redminebacklogs.net/) is trying to use the method is_default? but it's not defined anymore. Furthermore look at the screenshot please: - If I remember correctly, there was a column for the default status, or am I wrong? Can somebody light me up a bit? Thank you!

History

#1 - 2015-08-21 14:46 - Toshi MARUYAMA

- Status changed from New to Closed
- Resolution set to Invalid

Okay thank you.
But how do I define default status now? :-)

#3 - 2015-08-26 15:55 - Jurgen Reniers

From Administration -> Trackers, then click a tracker to edit the default status
