Description

Patch 0003: use <ul> to do pagination for better styling capabilities

- The outer p.pagination is changed to span.pagination. This is required since lists are not allowed within
- Change all items of the navigation to be <li>. This allows easy styling.

Patch 0004: change the pagination to a GitHub like style that is also easier to handle in responsive mode. Screenshot provided.

Thanks for working on this!
The work seems to be completed. Can target version be set to 3.2.0?
