The field is named "Assigné à", maybe "assignation" would be better than "affectation"?

The terms "Assigné à" or "Assignation" generally have a legal meaning, but "assignation" si correct for the consistency. Imho, replacing all "Assigné" with "Affecté" would be better. I can make this change if you want.

Many words have different meanings, Affectation has a legal meaning too. I think we're good with Assigné à. Thanks.
