Redmine - Defect #23103

Wiki in Markdown syntax mode improperly renders successive headers.

Description

I have found when using Markdown syntax that the headers get wonky when used in succession. I have attached screenshots to illustrate.

Given the input image, I expect First, Second, Third to appear uniformly but as seen in the output image First is treated as a sub-sub-sub-level heading

In the respectively titled image, you can see that sub-sub-sub level headings are given underlines in this style.
