Redmine - Feature #23137

Completed versions on Roadmap: Sort it so that recently created versions are on top

Description
Currently, the expandable list of completed versions in the right panel of the Roadmap seems to be ordered by creation time (ascending). Could this be changed so that recently created versions are not at the end, rahter on the beginning of this list? It is very likely (esp. with the Redmine project!) that I want to have a look at a newer version, and not a version from five years ago.

Totally agree that is useful to see the latest completed versions first. I've attached a small patch that implements this.

Wow, such a little change is required. Thank you, Marius!

Could it be considered to insert into Redmine? Doesn't need a test, IMO.

Agreed that this can be a helpful addition to the roadmap. However, the change in sorting order should not be hardcoded, but rather be presented as an option to the user in the roadmap.

This would be also very useful for custom fields with version model. E.g. for an "Affected version" custom field.

This feature request changes only the order in which the versions are displayed in the sidebar (attached a print screen). Regarding your request, I think that it should be filled in a new issue.

Change done in r16088 (on the controller side), thanks.
