Description
When mail is notified, default sender is got from global settings. But more useful notification, I made sender as event initiator such as issue editor, message poster and so on. Now Alice add an issue note, mail notification is sent from "Alice" not remine@ yourdomain.com.

Implementing this feature may break one of the most terrific features - `[[RedmineReceivingEmails]]`.

The only way to implement it is to put in Reply-to mail header redmine's e-mails, while From will be Alice's.

Anyway, I personally prefer the current behavior.
