Description

There is a list of subprojects on a parent project page. Thats absolutelly ok, but does not display different color for closed subprojects.

Feature
#23327

Defect
#23152

You should try with the default Redmine theme because the subproject color is managed from the CSS. Based on your printscreen, you use a custom theme.

What version of Redmine do you use? I think it is <= 3.3.0.
The feature to show closed subprojects in different color was introduced in Redmine 3.3.1 (#23152).

I cannot reproduce.

Could you try with default theme and upload a screenshot?
The screenshot you uploaded (Capturar.PNG) is not default theme.

Please cancel this issue because it was a plugin problem.

#8 - 2017-02-16 01:06 - Go MAEDA

- Category changed from Projects to UI

- Status changed from Needs feedback to Closed

- Resolution set to Invalid

Thank you for your feedback.
The problem was due to a plugin. Closing.
