Description
I started a review of r16029 for — great — issue #24407 some time ago and found some small issues, which I noted (using old-style pencil and paper). I wasn't able to complete this review and post my findings properly though. I will complete the review and post my findings (have to look-up that piece of paper) before version#119 gets released (the version which will include the changes from r16029). Meanwhile I post this issue as a placeholder and personal reminder.

I'll keep it scheduled for 3.4.0 for now, but this is obviously not a blocker for an eventual release.

I'll work on this, this week nevertheless. But in case it might take some time before there's final consensus over a resolution; this could always be included in future 3.4.x patch (maintenance) releases.

I am not that stubborn, we'll find a consensus fast if you can find your piece of paper to fix the small issues :-)
