Description
I just try to see on your own redmine site the "repository statistics" on both browsers firefox and internet explorer (6 and 7).
Those graphs generated was correctly viewed on firefox (on both linux and windows versions), but on "IE6 and IE7" it couldn't be seen.

This is not a problem with Redmine - you need to install a SVG viewer plugin for IE. Firefox has built-in SVG image displaying, so it does not need a plugin to show the graphs.

- Status changed from New to Closed
- Resolution set to Invalid

Indeed. You need a SVG plugin.
