Description

Hi all.

I am testing a new Redmine installation (Bitnami Stack, redmine 3.4.2) and I am logging time at project level (no issues have been entered for the project).

I have three users in the platform.

I noticed that, going into spent time report, I cannot filter for a specified user, but in the drop down filter for user I have only <<me>>, even if in the project other users have reported time:

Why is it happening this?

Is there a configuration to make possible to filter by any user?

Thanks in advance.

Regards from Lorenzo

Sorry, I would open a new thread in forum, not a bug report.
