As you can see on screenshots there is Last Month (Jan 2018) period selected, however output includes dates from current month (Feb 2018).

History

#1 - 2019-07-11 18:23 - Kevin Kelly

I encountered this issue today and it was due to a timezone mismatch between the records in the database and the date on the server after migrating Redmine to a new machine. Changing the timezone on the server to match the timezone on the server where the records were originally created resolved the issue.
