Description

Hello,

I have a problem with Redmine. my projects tree seems completely random. Most of my subprojects appear under the wrong projects. Eventhough in the settings of the subprojects, the parent project is well set, the projects tree is completely different (see image attached). This is very problematic for my tickets management with Agile board.

Thanks in advance for your help,

- Category changed from Project settings to Projects

- Status changed from New to Needs feedback

- Priority changed from High to Normal

You can try to run the following command to rebuild the project tree:

```
bundle exec rails runner "Project.rebuild_tree!"
```

And please see submissions.
