This problem should be fixed by r17395.

But the OP is using a stable branch, can you confirm?

#5 - 2018-06-17 08:37 - Go MAEDA

- Assignee set to Jean-Philippe Lang

No, I cannot reproduce it on 3.4.6. Probably the reporter is using the master branch of <https://github.com/redmine/redmine>. It is not an svn working copy, so Redmine does not add ".devel.nnnnn" information to the version number.

I think we can close this issue.
