History

#1 - 2018-12-17 12:08 - Pavel Rosický

it looks like config/settings.yml is from the old version, did you follow <http://www.redmine.org/projects/redmine/wiki/RedmineUpgrade> ?

#2 - 2018-12-17 19:09 - Jean-Philippe Lang

- Status changed from New to Closed

- Resolution set to Fixed

Indeed, this setting was added in 4.0.0. Please, do not keep your settings.yml from a previous version.

#3 - 2019-01-30 22:41 - Anne Hammond

I am getting the same Internal error when selecting Administration / Settings under redmine 4.0.1.

settings.yml is the default from 4.0.1:

rw-rw-r-- 1 apache apache 6277 Jan  7 13:25 settings.yml

Error from production.log:

ActionView::Template::Error (undefined method `close_duplicate_issues' for #<Class:0x0000000004353a28>):

I did follow upgrade instructions.

config/configuration.yml
config/database.yml

are from the previous install 3.2.0

#4 - 2019-01-30 22:52 - Anne Hammond

I downloaded settings.yml from

<https://svn.redmine.org/redmine/trunk/config/settings.yml>

[root@redmine2 config]# wc -l settings.yml settings.yml4.0.1
312 settings.yml
292 settings.yml4.0.1

< close_duplicate_issues:
< default: 1

is in trunk but not in 4.0.1 download.

No, The settings.yml is from Redmine 3.4. The size should be 6599 bytes in Redmine 4.0.1.
