Description

When I fill out the form to report a bug and use "create and continue" it only displays "successfull creation" on the next page.
If I want to find out what ID this bug got (because I want to add it to the "todo" in the sourcecode) i have to click on "Issues" first and search for my bug.

I would wish, that instead of only "successfull creation" the text would be something like "Bug #328 successfully created." so I could simply copy "Bug #328" and paste it into the sourcecode at the appropriate place.

It would be even better, if the link to the bug created would be posted, so I could add a full link to my sourcecode.

thanks.

Great thing to have. It could even be an issue link.
Can it be that the patch is not accepted due because it breaks localization?
