hi!

I found your issue while searching for a solution to my redmine upgrade problem (3.4.8.stable.17840 -> 4.0.1)

Unfortunately I did not receive the same error as you but I'd advise you to upgrade your redmine including all steps so that you end up with the last 3.4 version (3.4.8). As 3.1 is very far away from 4.0 I'd suggest that you make a fresh install of redmine 4.0.

Kind Regards,
Matt

#2 - 2019-01-28 14:21 - SOE Redmine

Hi!

Thank you for the suggestion. I found the problem. In the database there were rows starts with "Non Member" Roles. I had to delete these rows, and the db upgrade finished without error.

So i could upgrade from 3.1.2 to 4.0.1 in one step.

Best regards,
T
