I propose a feature to visualize the results of table on the 'time_entries/report' page using bar chart. By visualizing the summary results in charts, we can more intuitively grasp the "time series" and "comparison result" of spent time.

The first chart shows the evolution of the total time according to the period (year, month, week, etc.), and the after second charts show the comparison of total time according to the summary axis (user, status, etc.).