Description

after i post reply in forums on redmine.org i have no ability to edit my own message in my production Redmine "Edit own messages" permission (Forums section) is true for Non-member did anybody fix that, or i am wrong and simply have bad luck

History

#1 - 2009-05-05 14:45 - Alexey Lustin

i have see right now:

in default installation on Redmine the Non-member role have this permissions:

1. Issue - Edit own notes = false
2. Boards - Edit own messages = false

For issues there is correct i think, but for boards did not.
