

Redmine - Defect #34604

Dates are not shown in the edit box - start/due date for task

2021-01-18 22:10 - David L

Status:	Closed	Start date:
Priority:	Normal	Due date:
Assignee:		% Done:	0%
Category:	Issues	Estimated time:	0.00 hour
Target version:		Affected version:	4.1.1
Resolution:	Cant reproduce
Description
Start and due dates are visible for tasks when they are first created. They are also visible in the "issues" list.
However, when I go to edit the issue, they are not there. I see no way to update the dates.

- Status changed from New to Needs feedback

An Administrator might have restricted the ability to edit those fields for some statuses / trackers / user roles. Administrators can define those rules at Administration -> Workflows -> Field permissions.

Another possibility is that the issue you want to edit now has a sub-issue and an administrator has configured that the start / due date of parent issues should automatically be set based on child issues. This can be adapted in Administration -> Settings -> Issues.

#2 - 2021-04-20 00:38 - Marius BĂLTEANU

- Status changed from Needs feedback to Closed

- Resolution set to Invalid

#3 - 2021-04-20 00:39 - Marius BĂLTEANU

- Resolution changed from Invalid to Cant reproduce

Please reopen if the issue still reproduces.
