By specifying content instead of title in tooltip, it was possible to reflect including line breaks.
I'm not used to JQuely, so I would appreciate it if you could fix any problems.

public/javascripts/application.js

```
$(function () {
  $("[title]:not(.no-tooltip)").tooltip({
+    content: function() {
+      return $(title)
+    },
    show: { delay: 400
    position: {
      my: "center bottom-5",
      at: "center top"
    }
  });
});
```

Line breaks will be reflected in a tooltip by using the following patch.
