Description
Before Redmine 4.2.0, members box of the project overview page did not display locked users, but it does in Redmine 4.2.0. I think it is a bug due to #33174. In the change, the method to list members has been changed from Project#members to Project#memberships to get not only users but also groups. However, Project#members only returns active users but Project#memberships does not check the status of users/groups. <pre>has_many :memberships, :class_name =&gt; 'Member', :inverse_of =&gt; :project # Memberships of active users only has_many :members,   lambda {joins(:principal).where(:users =&gt; {:type =&gt; 'User', :status =&gt; Principal::STATUS_ACTIVE})}</pre> I think Project#principals_by_role that prepares values for the members box by using Project#memberships should exclude locked users. Redmine 4.1: 4_1.png Redmine 4.2: 4_2.png
