Description

problem

When checking multiple members in succession, whether the role is from a group or personalized
"Edit" and "Delete" are mixed at the right end, and I accidentally press "Delete".

measures

Do one of the following:

- Display a confirmation dialog before deleting.
- "Edit" that is always displayed is fixed at the right end, and "Delete" that is displayed depending on the condition is the second from the right.

/* The following is a Japanese supplement */

- File 0002-Separate-delete-link-and-edit-link-columns.patch added

- File after-applying-the-patch-00002.png added

Two patches are attached to solve this problem.

- 0001-Add-confirm-to-delete-link.patch
  Currently, the system only displays a confirmation dialog when certain condition is met.
  Change it so that l(:text_are_you_sure) is displayed even when the condition is not met.

- 0002-Separate-delete-link-and-edit-link-columns.patch
  Split the column so that the Edit link is not right-justified when there is no Delete link.

The issue that the patch 0002-Separate-delete-link-and-edit-link-columns.patch fixes has already been reported as #13199.

I have posted the patch with slight modification to #13199.
