Description

I configured redmine to send notifications and tested it on a sample issue. Here is what I received in my gmail. I see three problems here. The content is displayed with html tags showing, the link to issue uses localhost:3000, and footer is not showing correct link.

The wrong hostname is rendered in footer.

whatever i fill into Administration->Settings->General->Hostname,
'http://hostname/my/account' is rendered as hostname in email footer.

#5 - 2010-11-17 09:42 - Jean-Baptiste Barth

The hostname in footer is not defined there but in Administration->Settings->Email Notifications
